JOHN A. RAFFETTO, JR., IN ASSEMBLY CONTEST

WILL FILE FOR TWO PARTIES

Placerville Democrat Bids For Support Of Voters Of Sixth Assembly District

John A. Raffetto, Jr., will be a candidate for election to the State Legislature from the Sixth Assembly district subject to the August 30th primary election.

Mr. Raffetto, a well and favorably known native of Placerville, whose political affiliation has always been with the Democratic party, will be a candidate for nomination by both major parties and will invite support in the election by Democrats and Republicans as well.

His decision to become a candidate was announced Wednesday upon the conclusion of a thorough survey of the Sixth Assembly District which has revealed throughout the district evidence of a general expectation that the next Assemblyman should come from El Dorado County. The Assembly district is a part of four Senatorial districts with three Senators to the south of El Dorado County and one to the north.

Mr. Raffetto is well-known in El Dorado County as the proprietor of the Ivy Hotel and Ivy Motel, in Placerville. He has been in this business since his graduation from the University of California, where he was a student leader, in 1930.

Clampers To Set Memorial Plate

Ceremonial On Weekend Of April 30 Will Institute Marshall Chapter No. 49

The memory of Hank Monk, perhaps the most famous of the old-time stage drivers of the Pony Express Route across the Sierra, will be honored Saturday (April 30) when a plaque is dedicated under the auspices of the Ancient and Honorable Order of E Clampus Vitus whose members will stage a week-end ceremonial here.

Hank Monk's principal claim to fame lies in the oft-repeated tale of his bringing Horace Greeley across the Sierra from Carson City to Placerville, a distance of 109 miles in ten hours. That was in 1859.

History records that Greeley had expressed himself as being in a hurry and Monk did not spare the horses. The going became "a little too rough" and Monk saw Greeley arise in his seat as though to remonstrate.

"Just keep your seat, Horace, and I'll get you there on time," he advised.

The exercises will be presided over by Adam Lee Moore, of San Francisco, Grand Clampusiarch of the Clampers, and the dedicatory address will be by Dr. Roscoe L. Clark, of Sacramento.

This will be the first of a series of events presided over by the ninety-one year old Grand Clampusiarch, who was a charter member of Sierra City chapter in the old mining days.

The Grand Clampusiarch will be assisted by a drill team from Yerba Buena Chapter No. 1, of the order, of San Francisco, who are reported as fully equipped with branding irons and blunderbuses in preparation for the initiation of the poor blind brothers of Old Hangtown.

The Hall of Comparative Ovals has been established at the Raffles Hotel, which is on the site of the historic old Cary House, where Greeley dismounted from the stage coach, and where the plaque to Hank Monk's memory will be placed.

Old Hangtown is looking forward to the re-establishment of the Order of E Clampus Vitus in the community and a class of approximately twenty leaders in the life of the community will be duly initiated into the mysteries of the order, instituting James W. Marshall Chapter No. 49, in honor of the memory of the discoverer of gold at Coloma, whose find precipitated the gold rush of '49.

The initiation will include a street parade, with all members of the order in full regalia, old stage coaches and will conclude with a '49er banquet for members of the order.

ENTERS ASSEMBLY RACE—John A. Raffetto, Jr., of Placerville, who on Wednesday announced his decision to become a candidate for election as Assemblyman from the Sixth District, subject to the August primaries. Mr. Raffetto, a Democrat, will be a candidate for nomination on the Democratic and the Republican tickets.

11 JURORS SEATED IN HIGHGRADING CASE AS PANEL OF 35 NEARS EXHAUSTION

District Attorney Henry S. Lyon Has C. W. Pearson As Associate In Trial Of Two Defendants Charged With Several Counts Of Grand Theft

Selection of a jury in the trial of charges of grand theft against Mitchell D. Siderius and Robert Fields was believed near completion as Judge George H. Thompson recessed Superior Court Wednesday.

Court was to reconvene again at two o'clock with eleven jurors passed for qualification and with two names remaining to be drawn out of a panel of 35. Several had, for one reason or another, been excused from service and the state and the defense had exercised four of the twenty challenges allowed them.

Attorney Wallace Shepherd and R. C. Fleming represent the defense and District Attorney Henry S. Lyon has associated C. W. Pearson with him in the prosecution. Mr. Pearson is familiar with the case, having been employed by Russell J. Wilson, owner of the Black Oak mine, to represent him in efforts to recover gold stolen from the mine by highgraders.

The several charges against the defendants now on trial are contained in three Grand Jury indictments found in a review of highgrading at the mine.

As court recessed at noon the following prospective jurors had been accepted for cause and qualification:

Margaret A. Kelley, Joseph Frazier, Ernest Brown, Anne Klinger, Pearl Oates, Ethel Cody, Leo Flynn, Edward Althoff, Victor Banta, Charles Leventon and Katherine Johnson.

Tahoe's Gates Stay Closed

Fact Finding Committee Reports Level Still Three Feet Below High Mark

SACRAMENTO. — It will not be necessary to open the gates to dispose of excess water in Lake Tahoe, A. M. Barton, state reclamation engineer reports.

Barton said the maximum water elevation set by Prof. H. P. Boardman of the University of Nevada was 6228.8 feet, while the present water elevation was only 6226 feet.

The conference of federal, state and private engineers was called as a fact-finding body when lake front property owners expressed alarm over the water level.

Barton held up release of a full report pending approval of it by several officials who attended the Lake Tahoe conference here Monday.

Both California and Nevada interests were represented at the conference. Barton said J. S. McMaster, assistant district counsel for the U. S. reclamation bureau at Salt Lake City, also attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lawyer were among the callers from Lotus in the county seat on Wednesday.

Charles Leventon was representing Grizzly Flat in the county seat on Wednesday.

W. E. Bowman was a caller from the Springvale section on Wednesday.

INQUEST TONIGHT IN DEATH OF MAN AT CLARKSVILLE

A coroner's inquest to determine legally the cause of the death Tuesday of Charles Cleve Wright at Clarksville, will be held at 7:30 o'clock this (Wednesday) evening in the Superior Court room at the courthouse.

Mr. Wright, a native of Blair, Missouri, who had resided at Clarksville for about eight months, was found hanged in the woods at his residence Tuesday morning. He had been despondent for some time owing to lack of health.

His disability was attributed to injuries received about five years ago when, while engaged at his trade of painting and paper-ranging, he suffered a sun-stroke and fell from a two story building. He had not been well since that time.

The funeral services will be held on Thursday morning at ten o'clock at the village. Rev. Harold Morehouse officiates at the cemetery at Clarksville. Mr. Wright is survived by his wife and one son.

Dave Smith Funeral To Be At 1 P. M. Thursday

The funeral services for Dave Smith, who died Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Benson in the Summit district, will be held at one o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Dillingham mortuary chapel. The Rev. Harold Morehouse will have charge. Burial will be at Oak Hill cemetery.

FOREST REPAIR FUNDS NEAR

Movement Originating With County C. Of C. Is Given Tentative Approval

The early repair of bridges, roads, ranger stations, telephone lines and camp grounds in National Forests of California, damaged by the severe storms of the past winter, seems assured, according to word received by Reuel V. Whigam, president of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce, from Kenneth R. Walker, chairman of the Conservation Committee of the Sacramento Valley Council of the state Chamber of Commerce.

This word is gratifying to the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce, for it was in that body that the civic movement pointing out the great amount of damage done by the storms and the need for an appropriation to make repairs possible originated. The plea voiced by our county Chamber of Commerce was endorsed by the state Chamber of Commerce.

S. B. Shaw, Regional United States Forester and Charles G. Dunwoody, State Chamber representative in Washington, have been successful in securing tentative approval of the Director of the Budget and Secretary of Agriculture for an appropriation of $2,360,000 to be divided $860,000 for Northern California and $1,500,000 for the Southern Forests, with $1,440,000 as a part of the Supply Bill, the balance of $920,000 coming from WPA.

Mrs. Baalke In School Race

County Resident For 15 Years Taught In Nebraska, Montana And In North Dakota

Mrs. Edith Y. Baalke, of Smith Flat, on Wednesday announced her candidacy for election as County Superintendent of Schools, subject to the August primary election.

Mrs. Baalke has been a resident of El Dorado County for fifteen years. She received her early education in the schools of western Nebraska and was graduated from the Normal Academy at Chadron, Nebraska. She also received a diploma for special work in the study of Business and Banking.

Following her graduation, she taught in the public schools in Nebraska, in North Dakota and in Montana.

Since coming to El Dorado County, Mrs. Baalke has identified herself at all times with the friends of education and on numerous occasions has taken a leading part in behalf of the schools. Perhaps the most outstanding of her undertakings and accomplishments was in directing the building of the new school building at Smith Flat. Her efforts supporting this project elicited the following comment from Gene Kenyon, head of the Works Progress Administration for Northern California.

"Dear Mrs. Baalke, I wish to congratulate you on the completion of your project and to pay you a personal tribute for your accomplishment. It has been a pleasure to know you and to work with you and I feel that the success of this project is due entirely to your work as Sponsor Representative."

Mrs. Baalke was appointed by the federal government as an enumerator in the federal population census of 1930 in El Dorado County and again as enumerator in the industrial census of 1935.

Her active interest in school welfare is demonstrated by her recent election to be president of the P. T. A. at Smith Flat.

"I am looking forward with the greatest interest to contacting many of the people of El Dorado County whom I do not all ready know personally," Mrs. Baalke said. "I feel that, both in business experience and educational work, I am qualified for the office of County Superintendent of Schools and I will earnestly solicit the support of the voters in the coming elections."

COUGARS CAPTURE BASEBALL TITLE

Play Sonora Here Friday For Mother Lode League Pennant; Lone Defeated, 6 to 4

The high school Cougars won their sixth athletic championship of the year Tuesday afternoon when they defeated Lone high school at Lone, 6 to 4, to claim top honors in the northern division of the Mother Lode CIF baseball league.

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Cougars meet Sonora high school at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr. Memorial Park for the league championship. Sonora has won the title in the Southern division.

The Cougars needed the victory over Lone to keep them out of a tie for top position with Sutter Creek in the northern section and although the locals had previously beaten Lone by a lop-sided score, the return game showed the Amador county lads greatly strengthened and but for numerous errors, they would have had given the Cougars plenty of trouble.

Chester Carsten did mound duty for the Cougars and yielded five hits while his mates gathered eight off Custino and Clifton, who shared pitching responsibilities for Lone.

The score:

Cougars	6	8	2
Lone	4	5	6

Girls' Division For Softball

Meeting Tonight To Decide Whether Interest Warrants Provision For Competition

The county softball league, at a meeting Tuesday night, made provision for a C Division in which clubs will be made up entirely of girls and there will be a meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the P. G. & E. building to determine whether interest is sufficient to provide for four clubs in the division.

Tonight's meeting is called by S. E. Price and Harvey Lyons, who were named chairmen by the league on the C Division organization.

Treasurer S. E. Price reported at Tuesday night's meeting that the actual sales of tickets to the games have raised $250 toward the fund of $400 which will be required to install floodlights on the M. P. Bennett, Jr., memorial Park playing field.

Present prospects are for sixteen men's teams, eight in each division. By mutual consent the A division teams have arranged their practices so that the ladies may have the playing field without conflict for practice on Wednesday nights.

The Pacific Service, Brewster Inn, Diamond Springs, Placerville Motor Parts and Hangtown Cubs will practice Monday and Friday nights and the Placerville News, 20-30, F. Molay and Camino teams will practice Tuesdays and Thursdays.

The boys in the B division are having to hunt out their own practice fields.

The league will meet again next Tuesday night at which time, it is expected, a schedule may be drawn, providing for the opening games on the evening of May 2.

BUYERS' CLINIC SENSATIONAL

Homecraft Institute Ladies Share Enthusiastically In First Meeting Wednesday

Jane Barton's Homecraft Institute today was crowded with housewives who eagerly took part in the first interesting session of the Consumer's Clinic.

Mrs. Barton gave her audience a number of simple and effective tests and rules which might be applied in determining the quality and value of merchandise and food products used in the home.

The audience took an enthusiastic part in the program and Mrs. Barton answered questions and helped housewives to solve their problems for a considerable period after the formal close of the first session of the Homecraft Institute.

During the program an economy luncheon was prepared, including "Smothered Lamb Steak," "Oven French Fried Potatoes," and a new spinach salad. Yeast bread was made and a number of ideas for variety in ways of baking it given. An unusual dessert was made in the top of the double boiler. Jane Barton also made an easy fruit sherbet.

Budgeting ideas, buying suggestions, and what to look for to get the most for your money were discussed, with the idea that the management of the household includes deciding family policies, making plans for spending, then intelligent buying. The final step was (Continued on page 4)

Let's Elect Raffetto

El Dorado County has the opportunity to place its own representative in the Legislature as a result of the announcement today by John A. Raffetto, Jr., that he will become a candidate for election as Assemblyman from the Sixth Assembly District.

It appears, following a survey in various parts of the district, that some of the residents of our sister counties agree it is again time that the Assemblyman be chosen from this county since that honor has not been ours for a number of years.

This feeling is further supported by the circumstance that the ten counties of the district are included in four State Senatorial districts, three being located south of El Dorado and one to the north, so that it is reasonably fair that the Assemblyman should be from El Dorado County.

Mr. Raffetto is a native of the community, qualified by education and training and lifelong residence to render an effective and efficient service to the State of California and the Sixth Assembly district.

As a native son of old El Dorado County he deserves the support of his home county in his candidacy and we are sure that we can present him to our sister counties without any apologies, for their endorsement as our nominee for the office.

PLACERVILLE BAKERY BOOSTS SALES BY NEW WRAPPING

It pays to advertise specialty breads. But it can pay five times over to let specialty breads advertise themselves.

Weichold, proprietor of the Placerville Bakery, Placerville, Calif., was faced with the problem of adding new interest and sales appeal to his cinnamon specialty bread, says the March 16th issue of "Vitality News," publication of General Mills for the bakery trade. Externally the cinnamon loaf looked exactly like any other loaf of bread. But inside, the specialty presented an attractive, tempting appearance which could be capitalized upon to produce larger sales.

Mr. Weichold therefore concentrated upon wrapping. He sliced the cinnamon bread as usual, but before wrapping it in cellulose paper, he removed the center slice of the bread, then wrapped it, with the slice displayed on the top of the loaf.

Cinnamon bread thus became its own salesman! The character of the bread was evident, with its appetizing spirals of cinnamon and sugar. The added sales appeal of this new style wrapping increased the sales of this specialty over five times.

This is but one example of what can be done with clever packaging. Other specialty breads could, of course, be wrapped like this to good advantage.

FREE PARKING AVAILABLE FOR VISITORS AT INSTITUTE

Free parking space will be available at the Shakespeare Slub for the three days of the Homecraft Institute, all along the east side of Bedford Avenue and along the north side of Union Street from its intersection at Bedford Avenue, eastward. And in addition Sheriff George M. Smith has given consent to visitors to use all available stalls directly in the rear of the county court house. There will be no time limit for these spaces during the hours of the Homecraft Institute is in session each day, which is Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, from 1:30 p. m. to 4:30 p. m.

It is suggested by the management in charge of the Institute, that the ladies living within easy walking distance of the club house, leave their cars at home or have someone take them to and from, in order that more parking space may be available to out of town guests.

It is well to keep in mind that there are "No Parking" signs on the west side of Bedford Avenue and city traffic officers warn that it means just that. Otherwise every courtesy will be shown to find a suitable space for your car while you attend this event.

Bold Bad Baboon Bolts But Banana Betrays Brute

LOS ANGELES, (U)—A wandering baboon was back in his pen today after terrorizing the exclusive La Cresenta neighborhood in a six mile ramble.

He was captured while sheriff's squads hunted him with shotguns. They had orders to shoot on sight.

The baboon, half grown, is about three feet tall. Dr. Roger W. Barnes uses him for medical experimentation. He escaped yesterday afternoon while the pen was being cleaned.

Telephone calls came from frightened householders who beheld the animal peering in front windows or down flowered trellises.

Dr. Barnes bought an arm load of bananas and tried to follow but was left far behind. Fearing that the untamed baboon might attack without warning, he suggested that sheriff's officers kill the animal.

F. M. Newell who lives six miles from where the beast escaped, opened his back door and saw the baboon galloping about the yard on all fours. Newell grabbed a banana from the pantry shelf and waved it at the animal as he backed into a woodshed. When the baboon followed inside, Newell stepped out and slammed the door shut.

One "LITTLE START" can waste 1/3 mile of gas!

In your daily stops and starts, your engine eats up gasoline faster than you realize. How far your engine runs depends on how often you stop and start, how much you actually drive in low and second gears.

In "low," your engine makes about 12 revolutions for each turn of your wheels. In "second," about 8. In "high," it makes only about 4.

Shell engineers found that getting away on a single start can waste enough "undigested" gasoline to carry you 1/3 of a mile.

To cut this costly waste, they found a way to rearrange the chemical structure of gasoline, making every drop usable to your motor under all driving conditions.

YOUR GEAR RATIO

IN HIGH GEAR IS ABOUT 4 TO 1

IN SECOND GEAR IS ABOUT 8 TO 1

IN LOW GEAR IS ABOUT 12 TO 1

The more you STOP and START, the farther your engine travels in comparison to your wheels... and the greater your waste of "undigested" gasoline.

You can save on your stop-and-go driving costs by the regular use of Super-Shell. Try it — and see for yourself.

RUNAWAY HORSE BOLTS THROUGH DOWNTOWN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO. (P)—A runaway horse, pulling a careening wagon, galloped pell mell through the crowded downtown district before he was finally brought under control by Policeman Bill Hermann.

The horse skidded over streetcar tracks, streaked through traffic signals and bolted at motorists' horns during his wild run from Gary and Stockton Streets in the shopping center of town to Fourth and Mission streets.

Arthur Angelopoulos, orange peddler, clung to the reins until the cart hit a bump. Then he landed on the pavement unhurt.

Mrs. Marie Grien was among those in town from Rescue Wednesday.

GILBERT COLLYER TAKES BRIDE

Son Of Pilot Hill Family Weds Teacher In Stockton Schools In Rites At Home

The home of the bride's parents at Antioch was the scene of the marriage on Friday of last week of Gilbert A. Collyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace G. Collyer, of Pilot Hill, and Miss Mary Nell Evans, who is a teacher in the public school system at Stockton.

The ceremony was performed in a tastefully arranged setting of calla lilies, gardenias and palms by the Rev. H. W. Vodra, an uncle of the bridegroom. The Rev. Vodra had also officiated thirty years before at the marriage of the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ruth Norris of Antioch, as matron of honor, and Evan Gillam, of Montezuma School, near Los Gatos, was best man.

A luncheon for the wedding guests preceded the ceremony and as a part of the wedding rites Miss Clarella Collyer, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Oh Promise Me." Mrs. Collyer played the accompaniment.

Many beautiful gifts testified the high esteem in which the young couple are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Collyer spent a short honeymoon at Carmel and Del Monte and will be at home after September first at Susanville where Mr. Collyer, a graduate of our county high school in the class of 1926, is Associate Dean of Men at Lassen Junior College.

We join friends of the young couple in all good wishes.
